

Rising™ Monitor Arm Series wins the Red Dot Design Award.

Itasca, IL [May 21, 2024] – Fellowes Contract Interiors, a leading manufacturer of contract furniture, has been awarded the prestigious Red Dot design award for Rising™ Monitor Arms Series in the office furniture category.

The Rising™ Monitor Arms stood out for its diverse palette of standard, premium, and in-trend finishes, as well as its patented SnapKinect™ System and RotationStop™ and strong sustainability attributes.

The SnapKinect™ System enables seamless installation without the need for tools, while RotationStop™ provides 14 arm stop locations for precision positioning. Together, these industry-first technologies ensure faster installation and ergonomic comfort in the workspace.

Rising™ Monitor Arms demonstrates Fellowes Contract Interiors' commitment to sustainability in several ways. Packaging is plastic-free, 100% recyclable, and made with 96-98% recycled content. Rising™ Monitor Arms also aligns with SCS Indoor Air Quality Gold certification. Furthermore, Rising is Level 2 certified, conforming to the ANSI/BIFMA e3-2019 Furniture Sustainability Standard. Rising's modular design allows for component replacement or configuration to extend the lifespan of the product. All are backed by a Lifetime Warranty.
